

Greetings to all Members!

Changes to your Trustee Committee

We are very pleased to welcome our new trustee Iain Percival. Iain brings a great deal of experience and we look forward to his valuable future contribution to FRAW. Iain will be taking over the important secretary job from John Kerr after the necessary briefing has taken place.

John has decided that the time has come to relinquish his place on the FRAW committee but will thankfully remain a member. John has been with us virtually from when we started - what is now just about nine years ago. He started by setting up the membership operation and later transferred to the secretary position. John is a terrific worker, meticulous in everything he sets out to do. His counsel has been wise, informed and most important to us. He has been responsible for so much outside the routine of taking the minutes of meetings and such like. John has revised our constitution (twice) and capably taken up the complicated challenge of turning FRAW into a registered charity and so much more. His skilled photography has featured on many of our newsletters.

John has also led and been a key agent until very recently in maintaining and energising the Friends Forum which provides links between the many Friends groups in Edinburgh who do such valuable work.

John is with us a little longer and we wish him well in the future.

With our very best wishes
